

Cascade Clamp

Cascade Clamps - Established in Portland, Oregon in 1943, the Cascade Manufacturing Company began as a small machine store employing just 4 people. Overall sales for that year amounted to about $60,000. The very first recorded sales revenues involved the machining and assembly of stainless steel valves, pipe fittings and various components. Throughout 5 years of operation, the business had expanded to 40 staff and their yearly sales volume had risen to 330 thousand dollars. Today, Cascade is among the leading worldwide makers in the material handling industry.

Manufacture and design of the company's original hydraulic cylinder paved the way in Cascade's aggressive quest of better business possibilities. Over the past sixty years, the material handling industry has matured into a highly sophisticated area and Cascade has proudly performed a part in this development. Cascade currently continues to grow as the leader provider of lift truck attachments and numerous related items. The company feels certain in their capability to be able to continue to lead the way in the business by understanding client's requirements in the future and remaining aggressive within the world market.

In the 1950's, Cascade started designing, making and advertising hydraulic accessories. Manufacturing was done in 1956 on a brand new facility to house all of the plant and office operations in Portland, Oregon at the company's present center of operations. Subsequent to 15 years of business, total staff reached a hundred and eighty staff and sales had reached nearly 2.3 million dollars.

1959 in Springfield, Ohio the next manufacturing plant was built. nineteen sixty marked Cascade's preliminary transfer into the international world of the material handling industry when the company recognized interest in the Netherlands, England, and Australia.

In the year 1964, the business changed its name to the Cascade Corporation. After that in the year 1965, the company went public with a preliminary offering of two hundred thousand shares of common stock. Ever since then the business has expanded its manufacturing amenities throughout the continental USA to the areas Warner Robins Georgia to go along with its already current plants in Portland, Oregon and Springfield, Ohio. Cascade merchandise are made globally due to many subsidiary operations. In the year 1944, a new facility was completed in Almere, the Netherlands which is Cascade's European headquarters. This plant is made to be the ultimate customer service centre.

Cascade further expanded their product base in the year 1996 and the year 1997 after buying five companies, which included the Kenhar Corporation, the international best in forks.